CAREER OBJECTIVE

Motivated and results-driven Full Stack Web Developer with a solid foundation in both web development and Robotic Process Automation (RPA). I hold a B.Sc. in Computer Science from Al al-Bayt University and have completed a 6-month full stack training at Orange Coding Academy, followed by an 8-month internship split between the RPA team and the Chatbot team, where I worked as a Node.js Developer. I have hands-on experience developing web applications using the MERN stack (MongoDB, Express.js, React.js, Node.js), along with proficiency in JavaScript, Python, and RPA tools like UiPath. My portfolio includes over 25 real-world projects, covering automation, backend development, and user-facing interfaces. With strong problem-solving and analytical skills, combined with a collaborative mindset, I am seeking a challenging full stack or RPA development role where I can apply my expertise and contribute to impactful digital solutions in Jordan's growing technology sector.

TECHNICAL SKILLS
